The Business Management Magazine

JR Media CZ s.r.o.

For our Výběr magazine, which covers the areas of retail and marketing, the VČELIČKA s.r.o. agency provides proofreading of Czech texts, as well as translations from English. Examples of translations that we needed include an interview with the Chief Executive of Adidas, Mr. Herbert Hainer, or an interview with the well-known English marketing guru Grant Leboff. We were supremely satisfied with both types of services, and I believe that our readers were as well. In addition to the overall reliability, we also appreciate the speed, which is also important for publishers of material other than daily press.
